FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Adventure Adds Josh LeClair to Growing Staff

November 23, 2009 – Brainerd, MN

Adventure™ recently added Josh LeClair to address commercial photography growth.

LeClair is a recent graduate from Northern Michigan University with a BFA in photography. As Photography Assistant, LeClair will provide photography production and digital support for both on-location and in-studio photography.

Adventure™ provides all-encompassing creative and marketing services to leading regional and national companies - contributing to strategic projects critical to their brands' success. Senior-level experience and nationally-recognized executions complement existing client resources for energized brand strength and growth.
